

Passport & Visa Regulations

No entry permit (visa) is needed to stay in Austria as either tourists or on a business trip for a period of up to three months.

US passportholders do not require a visa in order to enter Austria. US travellers have at least six-month's validity remaining on your passport whenever you travel abroad. Check the expiration date on your passport carefully before traveling to Europe – especially children's passports, which are valid five years, not 10 years like those issued to U.S. citizens aged 16 and older.

Carry your passport when traveling to another country in the Schengen area. For US travellers you have at least six-month's validity remaining on your passport whenever you travel abroad. Check the expiration date on your passport carefully before traveling to Europe – especially children's passports, which are valid five years, not 10 years like those issued to U.S. citizens aged 16 and older.

Carry your passport when traveling to another country in Schengen area. Even if there is no border check at that time, officials may reinstate border controls and ask to see your passport without notice.